

we are now closed.

We regret to inform our loyal guests that we are closing the restaurant. It has been a pleasure to serve you as our guests. Sadly the current economic conditions due to the effects of the coronavirus have made continued operations impossible.

At this time, our other location remains open. We greatly appreciate your support and will be happy to serve you there.

soon.

We regret to inform our loyal guests that we will be closing the restaurant for the foreseeable future due to concerns over the coronavirus. We are closely monitoring the situation and will be following recommendations from the Center for Disease Control, public health officials, and city regulations to do our best to keep our staff, guests and local community healthy. Please check our website or facebook for the most up-to-date information. We will look forward to serving you again soon.

we're closed. (for now)

With the wellbeing of our staff and guests as our top priority, we will be temporarily closed as we monitor developments surrounding the coronavirus. While this was an incredibly difficult decision to make, it was easy to see the right thing to do and put the public interest and health of our community first. To stay up to date about our reopening and other important news please visit our website and follow us on social media. We're all in this together and look forward to welcoming you back just as soon as we can.

sincerely,
